August 2010

Dear Brothers,
Summer is upon us with good weather, a rich harvest of fresh vegetables and many events to share with family and friends. Our council is staffing the Ham Raffle at the St. Mary's in German Village Homecoming Festival this year. Please give an hour or more of your time to help. Call Samantha Hicks at 614-312-3880 and she can schedule a time for you. Thanks to District Deputy Tim Hickey for conducting our installation of officers on July 25th. Those that couldn't make it will be installed at our next council meeting. Thanks to those that attended our post installation cookout as a good time was had by all. Please note that Thursday, August 5th we are hosting the Chapter Cookout. We need to meet at the Cathedral at about 6:00 to get things started. I hope to see you there. Thanks to Jim Hilles for accepting my appointment as Chancellor of our council. Have a great month! Rich

Lector's Corner

A Spiritual note...Mt. 56; 16-19

Jesus talks about those being in the kingdom of heaven as being least or being greatest. I'm not afraid about being saved, I make it a point to practice my faith.

I do a communion service at a Nursing Home on Tuesdays and today when I was talking to the residents about the dwelling we will have in Heaven I realized that they are limited to making a better place for themselves in the Kingdom. Their eternal happiness may be set.

What I like about being a Knight is the ongoing opportunity to improve my experience of eternal happiness. Being retired I have even a greater opportunity to be effective but if I do nothing then nothing changes.

Praise Jesus,

Rev. Mr. Jerry Butts #5429
