February 2008

Dear Brothers;

Oh boy, it's February, a great time to live in Ohio! I think a very common thought about now is just getting through the mid-winter doldrums. Well, Fr. Thomas at St. Mary's has an idea that can help warm these winter days. He has graciously offered to host a dinner for the Knights of 5429, their wives, girlfriends and widows of past members. The dinner is Saturday, February 9th at St. Mary's starting at 6pm Father Thomas will provide the food and non-alcoholic refreshments. Feel free to 'bring your own' alcoholic beverage if you desire. Father Thomas said this is one way he can show his appreciation for the support our Council has given St. Mary's in the past. Please call 445-9668 and R.S.V.P. to Cindy Oddi at the parish office as soon as possible. This should be a nice relaxing evening, a good chance to have some fun and maybe share a few 'tall tales'. I hope to see you all there.

God Bless, Don

Let's Go Krogering!

The gift cards are here! Grand Knight Don Metnes has signed us up for this fund raising program that will provide our Council with 5% of all money loaded onto the gift cards. These special cards can be re-loaded and are good for food, merchandise and gas purchases. This is a great way for all Knights to support their council and help us raise funds. You don't have to spend a dime more than normal and it requires very little effort. All you have to do is shop like you normally would. Get your card by contacting Don at 271-5861 or Metnes@aol.com.

On a Religious Note!
