Notes from the Pastor

The big news is the church! The Dispatch has called us. The Catholic Times had a substantial report. Channel 6 did a special. Word is getting out. St. Mary's is in distress due to roof and support issues. Clearance and approval from the diocese has come to empty the church and put all its contents into heated storage. Great care will be taken and a bar code inventory will be made of every item as it leaves the church.

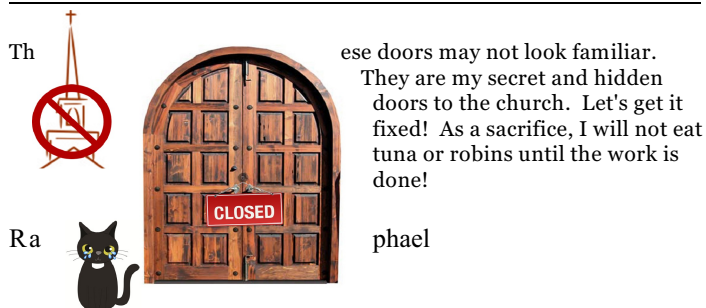

A temporary wall will be built to protect the reredos (the high wooden back behind the tabernacle) and the rare and not removable paintings by Gerhard Lammers on the wall with the angels. Likely the driveway between the church and the rectory will be closed and a temporary one will be created between the rectory and the school. Every effort will be made not to lose any memorial trees around the rectory.

Calls are coming in from friends and strangers wanting to help. Thanks for being good sports during this challenge. I see and hear optimism from everyone.

Unless the Lord builds a house, they labor in vain who build it. Now more than ever we need to be a people of prayer.

The Lord be with you!

Fr. Kevin F. Lutz

ADOPT-A-FAMILY: Your generosity is AMAZING!

Last year, your donations for the less fortunate in our community through the Adopt a Family Christmas program were simply amazing. We were able to provide gift cards for food and gas to 15 families. Toys and clothing were provided to 48 children in those families. In addition, we were able to assist 9 homebound parishioners with gifts and gift cards for food and gas. The monetary value of your generous donations last year exceeded $11,000, but the value to those families in need who were able to provide for their children is priceless. Our Adopt a Family tree will be full of ornaments (gift requests) the weekend before Thanksgiving.
