Notes from the Pastor

In your charity, please pray for the soul of Patricia Mary Siravo. I left the Gala early to give her the Last Rites. Also in your prayers remember Sister Rosemary Anthony, OSF. Sister was a good friend of St. Mary's. While on vacation she would come to St. Mary and help in the office. Her smile brought joy with each of her visits. She was buried at Stella Niagara, the order's Motherhouse. Kayla, Linda, Sheila and Donna went to the funeral this past Saturday in the Niagara Falls area of New York. In your prayers, also remember Deacon Frank McDevitt who served for many years at St. Ladislav and later at St. Elizabeth in the north end. May he and all who died, rest in peace.

God bless the incredible men and women who put together the 2017 St. Mary Gala. The entire evening was prepared well in every detail and the crowd filled the room with laughter and good friendship. Thanks to the many who made it possible and the many benefactors who gave so generously.

This weekend is the last weekend before the season of Lent begins. A reminder that Ash Wednesday is a day of fast and abstinence. Every person 14 years of age or older must abstain from meat (and items made with meat) on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all Fridays of Lent. Every person between the ages of 18 and 60 must fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. -- One meal a day and two smaller meals which if added together do not exceed the main meal in quantity. No eating between meals.

The Lord be with you!
Father Kevin F. Lutz

From the Dove of Our Lady:

Because I'm such a good friend of the Old Oak Tree I'm assisting in place of the cat's column. We are still working out the details.

I've seen you all many times during my fly-overs. Do not fear: I am the one dove who is the respecter of cars and people!

A little about myself-- I am a white dove, never to be confused with the Holy Spirit who flattered all of us doves by appearing in our form at the Jordan River. I often sit in the Old Oak Tree and watch the comings and goings of the parish. Every now and then I fly up and sit on the steeple cross 197 feet above Third Street. What a beautiful view of the village. Unfortunately, I cannot invite you to join me. Sadly there is so much noise from cars and buses and blaring music that you often don't get to enjoy the beautiful "Te Deum" that the birds chant all day, every day. All creation sings to its creator in one way or another. Since doves were created before man, I'll tell you a little secret --- Before you fell in Original Sin, you didn't talk, you sang. That is why singing in church is so important. It brings you back to your original condition close to God. Sing praises to the Lord! Little else is worth listening to.

On a wing and a prayer,
Lovey Dovey

"Grand Old Saint Mary's" Hall of Fame

John W. McGaw, Saint Mary class of 1953, was one of many Saint Mary High School graduates to answer the call to serve their country. John began his service by joining the Ohio State Highway Patrol in 1957, upon graduation from Otterbein College. He left the Patrol, a job he loved, in 1967, he said, in order to afford college for his children. He became a special agent with the United States Secret Service in charge of the Vice Presidential protective division. McGaw soon became the agent assigned with "tagging along after President Bush." He became Director of the United States Secret Service from 1992 to 1993. When the siege of Waco ended in disaster, McGaw was appointed Director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) to provide needed leadership. He served as Acting Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and later as Undersecretary of the Transportation Security, he organized the Transportation Safety Administration (TSA). McGaw received the Presidential Meritorious Award twice and the Presidential Distinguished Award.
