Notes from the Pastor

In your charity, please pray for the soul of Rita K. Myers, age 89, who was buried last Saturday from St. Ladislav Church. Her son, Vern, works at St. Lad's and her grandson, Vern Jr., works at Corpus Christi. May her good soul rest in peace! Also please remember Ailsa Mary Burke, age 88, who died March 23. I was called to Mt. Carmel West to give the Last Rites. May she rest in peace! Please remember also the soul of Walter Gibian, age 95. He was very active in many Catholic enterprises, a World War II navy veteran, and a leader in the Cum Cristo Movement.

This coming Friday, April 7, is First Friday. The First Friday Club will meet in the Burkley Center. Cream puffs from Schmidt's will be served. Dispensations will be granted.

It's not too late if Lent has not gone quite the way you planned. Start today, if you need to. Better to do something than nothing at all! God gave a full wage to those who started late in the day.

The Lord be with you!

Father Kevin Lutz

From the Old Oak Tree

From my higher branches, I can see that the forsythia has bloomed. That bush is such a liar! How could it possibly know how many snows there would be after it opens its buds? Many plants and many people are easily tricked. The Ohio Lottery is just as unpredictable as the Ohio weather.

I am very happy that several people came over to be photographed beneath my branches. I have very strong roots. I hardly noticed that they were there, aside from their joyful laughter. Would you like to be in the bulletin? I have power here at St. Mary's.

Pray of the Woods

I am the heat of your hearth in the cold winter nights, the friendly shade screening you from the summer sun, and my fruits are refreshing draughts quenching your thirst as you journey on.

I am the beam that holds your house, the board of your table, the bed on which you lie, and the timber that builds your boat.

I am the handle of your hoe, the door of your homestead, the wood of your cradle, and the shell of coffin.

I am the bread of kindness and the flower of beauty. 'Ye who pass by, listen to my prayer: Harm me not.

You are probably wondering how I got a photo in the bulletin ... simple ... PHOTOSYNTHESIS!

Grand Old Saint Mary's

Msgr. Specht on Passion Sunday - March 1903

"Why is the fifth Sunday of Lent called Passion Sunday? The reason is found in the gospel of that Sunday. "Passion" means suffering. Passion Sunday is the Sunday of Suffering. The gospel tells us how Christ tried to teach the people His Godhead-and how the Jews rose up and wished to stone Him. But Jesus hid Himself and left the temple. The fury of the Jews could leave no doubt in the mind of the Lord as to the designs of His enemies and His passion and death, which, though ten days off must have vividly passed before His mind. It is called Passion Sunday because on that day Christ began His passion by anticipation." "Why are the crosses and pictures in church covered? The crosses are covered to remind us of Jesus having hid Himself from His people." "Why are they covered with violet cloth? Violet being the color denoting humility and penance, the Church wishes us to humble ourselves and sympathize with our Savior in His sufferings by doing penance."

EAT PUFFS, SAVE ST. MARY!

Schmidt's Sausage Haus und Restaurant is donating $1 for every cream puff sold to help rebuild the steeple at St. Mary Catholic Church in German Village.

Schmidt's, at 240 E. Kossuth St., also in the historic district, expects to raise $10,000 for the church by April 15, the end of the fundraiser.

The cream puffs are available at the restaurant and its two food trucks. St. Mary at 684 S. 3rd St., was badly damaged by a lightning strike in September. The church has been closed since then amid renovations.

Jesus knocks at the door of our hearts and eagerly desires to dine with us at the sacrificial meal we call the Eucharist. He wishes to find us ready to receive him, to sit down and eat with him, in the upper rooms of our lives.
