Notes from the Pastor

In your charity please pray for Jim Getreu, 87, a graduate of Rosary High (1948) and father of Rev. David Getreu. Please also pray for Chris Breeckner whose funeral was at Mother of Sorrows on Saturday. May they rest in peace.

Today, (Sunday) is the Feast of Corpus Christi -- the central mystery of our faith. A special celebration will take place at Corpus Christi Church.

Father Droll will be leaving for his new assignment on July 11. Father said he does not want any fanfare, but there will be a couple of modest receptions. I am sure with the driving that Father will have to do, a gas gift credit card might be a nice gift. If you are thinking of something else, consider a donation for vestments for his new churches. Just a thought. Fr. Droll will be honored at the coffee and donuts at St. Mary on July 2 between the 9 & 11:30 Masses. Corpus Christi and St. Lad's will have Father for his last weekend on July 8-9 with a gathering after each Mass.

My last weekend at Corpus Christi and St. Lad's will be the weekend of July 1-2. I'd be happy to just sit and have a cup of coffee after the Sunday Masses. I wish you the very best with an excellent priest: Father Vince.

I am glad that the Bishop is re-activating the rectory at Corpus Christi. With a resident priest to serve both churches I believe that there will be many blessings for you in the future. You will remain in my prayers.

Things are moving nicely on St. Mary Church. Engineers are studying the structure to see where the steel supports need to go. The big Kick-Off for our fundraiser will be July 31, 2017 -- Monday at the OHIO THEATER with the showing of "The Bells of St. Mary's" on the big screen. The Mighty Morton Pipe Organ will be played and the Carillon that you heard at the Sesquicentennial will be parked and played on State Street in front of the Ohio Theater. Should be a grand opening to our Capital Campaign!!!

The Lord be with you!

Grand Old Saint Mary's" William Eisele
William (Bill) Eisele, a 1940 graduate of old Saint Mary High School, was the creator of the iconic portrait of Saint John Paul II. The portrait is the one of the pope leaning his head on his crucifix-topped bishop's staff. The original portrait was donated by Bill to the Pontifical College Josephinum, in 1994. An inscribed photograph of the work was presented to Pope John Paul II in Rome by Bishop James A. Griffin in 1983. "Bishop Griffin told me that when the pope saw the picture, there was a big smile on his face," Eisele said. Two thousand prints were made and sold for $12 apiece, with the money going to the diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Society. Eisele grew up as a member of St. Leo Church. After high school, he graduated from the former Columbus Art School (Columbus College of Art and Design). In 1968, his drawing of A Partridge in a Pear Tree was selected as the national Christmas Seal stamp for the American Lung Association, with more than eight billion copies printed. He was a volunteer for many years at Mt. Carmel East Hospital. Bill passed away on this date, June 18, 2014, at the age of 92. Requiescat in Pace.

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope, and I love You! I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope, and do not love You.
The words of this prayer given to the young visionaries of Fatima may seem simple. But the words outline our responsibilities as Christians—to believe, to adore, to hope, and to love God. As well as to ask pardon for those who do not act in this way. And further, to beg pardon for them. We should make reparation for their sins too.
