Notes from the Pastor

In your charity please pray for the soul of Anita O'Reilly who died and was buried form St. Leo this past week. I anointed her at Riverside. She had perfect clarity right up to the end. She was a member of the old St. Peter's and St. Leo's.

This weekend Father Philip Zema will be at the parish for the annual Missionary Appeal. Father is a member of the Comboni Missionaries. Please be generous to the appeal. Missionaries' labor often under the most difficult burdens and your dollars can accomplish much to provide medical, educational, and spiritual support.

Please remember Father Droll in your prayers as he begins his new assignment. It is certainly a challenge. The priests of old were often circuit riders. We seem to be heading in that direction again. Pray for vocations.

July 31 - Monday - The Ohio Theater - Be There. No charge. Bring a friend. This is our grand kick-off for the repairs on our church. The movie The Bells of St. Mary's will be shown and the Mighty Morton Theater Organ will be played. The grand carillon from our sesquicentennial will be parked out front on State Street and will entertain before and after the show.

From the Old Oak Tree . . .

That last rain was refreshing. What a boost. Sorry about the fallen limbs - however, none of them were mine. Recently I heard the pastor talking about a day trip he took on the Fourth of July: to Dawes Arboretum! Well worth a trip to refresh your soul and walk in the woods! Many of my friends are growing there. Come and say hello. There's no charge and there are many sights and smells to refresh you from the Japanese Garden, to the grand old oaks (I do favor my own). There are many beautiful plants and bushes that will silently tell you about the Hand of God that made them. Let Father know if you take my suggestion. I'd like to think I still have a little sway around here.

Making your air fresher,

The Old Oak Tree

News Worthy Notes

THE SSCM FOOD PANTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP!

We've had some resignations and changes at the pantry, so are looking for additional volunteers from our parish. This includes open shift workers, produce pickup and help with the delivery truck. St. Mary has been part of this ministry for many years which directly contributes to the health and well-being of our Southside community. Consider helping in this Corporal Work of Mercy. For more information, contact Mary Kelly Minner (mkelly294@yahoo.com or cell: 614.404.0817)

"Grand Old Saint Mary's" - Our Foundation – Mrs. Margaret Bangert The parish is an assemblage of individuals and families coming together for the purpose of worshipping God. Some are famous and unfortunately, some are infamous, and others are "just" God's children doing the best for their community and their families. One such person was Mrs. Margaret Bangert, who at the time of the parish centennial in 1965 was past the ninety-year mark, putting her within a few years of the founding of the parish. The following are some of her memories of the past at St. Mary's. Mrs. Bangert was born in the old brick house next to the grade school on Third Street. She was baptized in St. Mary's Church and went to school there. She attended first grade in a room above the sanctuary, which according to Father Burkley, held over eighty students when he later attended second grade in the same room. Can you imagine a room of that size holding eighty squirming first graders? The nuns were truly saints. In those days children had to be twelve years of age before making their First Holy Communion. In school, they were taught in German in the morning and in English in the afternoon. Mrs. Bangert still had one of her report cards in German language. Mrs. Bangert had six children, six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH... cordially invites you to a Missa Cantata (Sung Mass) celebrated in Latin according to the Dominican Rite (the extraordinary form of the Mass proper to the Dominican Order) on the Solemnity of St. Dominic, Friday, August 4th, 2017, at 7:00 p.m., 280 North Grant Avenue. Latin-English worship aids will be provided. After Mass, light refreshments will be served in the parish hall.
