Notes from the Pastor

In your charity, please pray for my cousin Kathy Shea, 71, who died recently. I offered her funeral Mass at St Leo's last Tuesday. Kathy went to Hollywood after college and became a producer. She worked on many movies and TV shows and managed to hold on to her Catholic Faith in an environment that is not particularly favorable to religion. May her good soul rest in peace. Her last words to me were: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. You want a movie to have a good ending. Better still if your life has one. What will your last words be?

I have been offered a seat on a pilgrimage with Father Joseph Tuscan. I will be travelling to Lourdes, Fatima and Medjugorje. The trip is from August 30-September 8. I will be collecting prayer intentions to carry with me and remember in these holy places. More news from the pulpit.

Please pray for Dr. Stephen Ondrey who is entering the seminary after many years as a dentist. Technically he is a member of Holy Name but often serves Mass here. Pray for vocations!

The Lord be with you!

Fr. Kevin Lutz

From the Old Oak Tree

I hear that there will soon be a series of public rosaries for the success of the repairs of the church. Since I have a lovely shrine in honor of Our Lady below my limbs, I will be seeing you soon I hope. Pray and pray some more.

The Old Oak Tree (who regrets that he is not as funny as the cat!).

HOLY GROUND IS ALL AROUND

You're not looking for God in the supermarket. You don't expect to see God in traffic. You don't usually have a religious experience while doing homework, standing in line at the bank, or eating cereal. Moses was certainly not expecting to have a divine encounter during another quiet shift keeping an eye on the sheep: Coyotes, maybe but The Holy One of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, not likely. Yet when he climbed up to see the now-famous burning bush, God was waiting for him. Look more closely: Could that be God trying to get your attention?
