Notes from the Pastor

The prayers after Mass are paying off; Dr. Steve Ondrey, who serves every Saturday at the 4:00 p.m. Mass and often on Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. is entering the seminary on August 23. I will drive up to Boston, leaving in the afternoon of the 20th and returning Thursday or Friday. At age 40, he will attend St. John XXIII National Seminary in Boston. Continue to pray for vocations.

I was just offered an opportunity to travel to Fatima, Lourdes and Medjugorje. I will leave August 30 and return September 8th. If you have any prayer intentions you would like me to remember, please write a short note. If it is personal, just write "Special Intention." God always knows.

School begins on Wednesday, August 23rd at 8:00 a.m. Bishop Campbell will be here for the opening Schuletute ceremony.

Monday, August 21st is the great eclipse between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Read about it and don't stare at the sun.

The Lord be with you!

From the Old Oak Tree. . .

Not feeling too well. I'm losing circulation in one of my branches. Those things happen. Hope it's not fatal. I'm hoping to be here when the church re-opens, even if I lose a few branches. The side facing Mary is my best side and is still looking good.

Welcome back, children!

Jesus is the answer to all our questions, no matter what our age or state of life. He offers solace to those aching for relief. He offers truth to young people who are searching for deeper meaning and security. He restores the dignity and moral center of those who are looking for life and see only death. To each of these weary souls, Jesus says: "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens and I will give you rest...learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls" (Matthew 11:28-29).
