Notes from the Pastor

In your charity please pray for Susan Luck, Joe Salvatore and Diane Craft, sister of Jim Craft of St. Mary's. Her funeral will be in Wapakoneta, Ohio. May they rest in peace.

The month of November is especially dedicated to prayers for all the faithful departed. The "Book of the Dead", listing those who have died this past year gives us another opportunity to pray for those loved ones who have gone before us. You may add names of those friends and family who have died who are not listed -- that we may pray for them also.

Prayers are requested for Zack Doyle, a former employee, who is moving back to Boston where his family is situated.

Saturday, November 11th, is the 39th Anniversary of my Ordination to the Holy Priesthood. Please keep me in your prayers on that day. It would also be a good day to pray for vocations to the priesthood. The Church is in need of good, holy and committed laborers for the Harvest.

The Lord be with you!
Father Kevin F. Lutz

I'm very fond of riddles and brain teasers. I have decided to share several over the next few weeks. Here's one for today--it's a bit difficult: Take the words NEW DOOR and make just one word out of it. Have fun!

A View of Heaven

*Our language limps when we speak of God's love for us.
We have no real understanding of infinite or eternal.
But in the end, it seems best if we think of heaven as perfect union with God, the giver of life.
Though we may not be able to comprehend heaven to its fullest extent here on earth and in our wounded state, we can and do experience the presence of God within us because that is where God's presence is. In a way, the best vision of God is not so much looking up or out, but looking within our very selves. After all, we know God made us in his image and likeness.
Thus, we have the ability to understand the two most important aspects of God: to love and to forgive. And we are capable of both.*
