 Father Kevin Lutz

A message from The Church, AKA Grand Old St. Mary's . . .

There's footsteps in the Sanctuary as Phase II begins with measurements begin taken in preparation for the installation of the iron rods that will support my walls.

News Worthy Notes

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE

1. A Parent & Parish Informational Meeting will be held on Tues. Jan. 9th at 6:30 p.m. in the school gym. The meeting is open to all school parents and parishioners. Its purpose is to inform all interested parents and parishioners about the progress of the Save St. Mary Capital Campaign. Mark your calendar for this informational evening. FOR THE FIRST TIME: those in attendance will be able to see the actual architectural drawings for the rebuilding of the Church. This will include a slide presentation followed by an opportunity for Q & A.
2. The packets with all the information you need to get involved in our historic and exciting Save St. Mary Church Campaign (including your letter of intent and a discussion of creative ways to give) were distributed after all the Masses during much of Advent. Now, all parishioner packets that have not been picked up are being mailed. You will soon be receiving a phone call from a "Campaign Ambassador" (one of your fellow parishioners) to see if you have any questions while you are praying about making "the biggest gift of your life" -- to use the words of our fearless leader, Father Lutz! The Rebuild Phase of the work has already begun! Every dollar that you give now will go to the beautiful Restoration Phase of the project, set to begin May 1. We must meet our fundraising goal by April 1 to make that happen. Please pray for the success of our Campaign so St. Mary will be a thriving and fruitful parish for the next 100 years!
 From Mike and Peggy Hartshorn, Campaign Co-Chairs

"Grand Old Saint Mary's" Catholic Man of the Year-Richard Castrop February is fast approaching and it will soon be time for the presentation of the 2018 "Catholic Man of the Year" award. In 1975, Alexander "Ollie" Rueckel was the first St. Mary parishioner to receive the award followed by Arthur G. Duemmel in 1984. Both of these special men have been subject to previous bulletin articles. 1993 Richard Castrop became the third man from St. Mary to receive the award. Richard graduated from the old St. Mary High School and Bliss Business College. In 1944 he married Helen Haban, and together they raised four children. Richard was the past executive director of the Rosemont Center. He also served on numerous boards and organizations, becoming president of the diocese's first parish council (Corpus Christi), the Diocesan Council of Catholic Men and the Serra and Kiwanis Clubs. He gave his time and talent to the United Way, the Ohio Association of Child Caring Agencies and Franklin County Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. He was associated with the Sisters of the Good Shepherd at the Rosemont Center for over a quarter of a century, where he led the expansion of their programs to include a group home, aftercare services and family, drug and alcohol counseling. Under his leadership, the number served at Rosemont grew from fewer than 10 to more than 650 young people and their families each year.
