Notes from the Pastor

In your charity please pray for Msgr. George Schlegel, retired pastor of St. Joan of Arc and Sacred Heart, New Philadelphia. He was buried from St. Joan of arc last Tuesday. Also pray for Elizabeth Burkhart, a Watterson graduate who suffered major brain trauma in 1980, and after months in a coma, woke up and regained some of her artistic abilities. Finally, please remember Susan Paster Ridgeway. She was a Hartley graduate in 1964. She tried the convent for three years but realized she was called to the world where she raised a family. All were buried this past week. May they rest in peace.

This is Right-To-Read Week. St. Mary School teachers, students and parents always do this up in a big way. You don't want to miss any of this week's events. This is also a particularly good time to begin a reading tradition at home -- perhaps a special time of day when reading is encouraged and enjoyed--together, individually, having a special theme--and growing into loving every minute of this experience!

Please pray for Father Stan Benecki (Pastor of St. Mary Magdalene) who recently had a heart attack. Fr. Stan is scheduled to retire in July. Pray for his health. Also remember Msgr. Mario Serraglio (my high school Latin and biology teacher) who recently went to the emergency room. He's making progress at this point. Pray it continues.

Start thinking about May -- the month of Our Lady. It's time to think about the beautiful custom of a home Mary Altar and the Family Rosary.

The Lord be with you!
Father Kevin F. Lutz
