Notes from the Pastor

I'm dictating (actually texting) these notes from Niagara Falls.

In your charity, please pray for the souls of Dr. Rodney Minner, father of our own Deacon Minner who went to heaven last Saturday and John Steven Evans. May they rest in peace.

We left early Tuesday morning on our pilgrimage to Niagara Falls. Our first night here we had dinner at a beautiful restaurant overlooking the Falls. On Wednesday we had a trip to Canada. Some of our group took in the view from the top of the Skylon Tower overlooking the Falls; others have enjoyed the tour of the Falls on the Maid of the Mist boat tour. Today, Thursday, we will visit Our Lady of Fatima Shrine and Stella Niagara, after which we'll head back to Columbus. This has been a great trip and as always I've kept you in my prayers.

Don't forget to stop by the Jubilee Museum that will be hosting the "Lego Vatican Display" for six weeks beginning June 7th. This is a tremendous display that you don't want to miss. A priest from Pennsylvania designed and built this very detailed endeavor. A visit to the museum will not leave you disappointed. Mark your calendar!

Please keep in mind that the Chapel will be open daily during the week for those of you who want to visit our Lord. I hope all those who participate in our Adoration Schedule will keep to their scheduled hour during the summer months, however, there will be no exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament during the summer. During the summer, a zealous attempt will be made to enhance our list of participants and add a substitute list to be available.

The Lord be with you!
 Father Kevin F. Lutz

"Be of good heart."
I love that saying because it is true. We should be of good heart no matter what happens because we know—or we should know—that we are Mary's very own children and that she loves us beyond what words can adequately describe. We have, not only the right, but the obligation to call out to her when we are in trouble. Like all good mothers, her ears are tuned to the voices of her children. She knows each one individually and is constantly listening. —from Forgiving Mother: A Marian Novena of Healing and Peace
